HOTEL ZETTA

Settled right in the middle of some of the biggest tech companies' offices (including Twitter and Hotel Tonight), you could be forgiven for mistaking this hotel for the office of a successful start-up. As you walk in, you come face-to-face with a very lively bar and a two-storey gaming area with every activity your inner child could desire. The rooms are decked out with a variety of gadgets and there is a gym with yoga classes if you want to unplug for an hour. One of Hotel Tonight co-founder Jared Simon's top picks.
