

DESTINATIONS / HOTELS

KARINE MONIÉ
20 | 08 | 2015

→ Gallery

Wine culture

Opened since March, the Hotel Vintage Portland is the perfect stage to discover an attractive city and region of Oregon.

RELATED

→ The Mexican heart of Portland

The northwest coast of America offers sublime landscapes, as varied as the Pacific Ocean, volcanoes and mountains. Beyond nature is the queen and the inhabitants of the region they understood for several years. Portland, city of the State of Oregon where the Hotel Vintage is a true example both nationally and internationally as a sustainable livelihood. The preferred means of transportation is the bicycle people, organic food has great success and renewable energy across the city are widely used.

After a renovation led by Dawson Design Associates, this hotel -member of Kimpton Hotels - located in a historic building reopened under the theme of wine in honor of the wine tradition of this area and in particular the Willamette Valley. The interior design of the rooms also stands out for its contemporary and romantic style, and includes works by contemporary artists.

The icing on the cake is hidden in the "Garden Spa Rooms", because each of these rooms has an outdoor hot tub on your private terrace. For dinner the best of Italian food and breakfast viennoiseries tasty and the french toast recommended by all the waiters restaurant, guests only have to walk two steps to reach "Pazzo" headed by renowned chef Kenny Giambalvo.

In addition to its ideal location in the city center location, Vintage Portland hotel has bikes available to guests. After having checked, we can assure you it is the best means of transport to discover this dynamic city and feel almost like one of its inhabitants during a weekend or more.

www.hotelvintage-portland.com